June 16th, 2020

430pm-530pm

Present: Melody Lyle, Fiona Bartell, Carey Weinheimer, Nate Fristoe, Trisha from Ross Management, Chris Nelson, Anne Schwarting (GS), Anne Shusterman

- An altercation between two people
- Unemployed residents are stressed
- Substance use has decreased
- Letter about youth who passed away was sent to Susan Dawson. Where did that go?
- After 9pm, sounds like gunfire for three hours....Carey says it is fireworks in preparation for Fourth of July
- Carey said there are roughly 70 calls since January.
 - Some might not be about 1440 residents but about things happening in the neighborhood.
 - 17 of these resulted in welfare checks
 - Is this pretty typical for this population?
 - Anne S. thinks that is a lot of calls
 - It's mostly the tenants who call
 - Who pays for these wellness checks
 - Individuals usually provide their private insurance, Medicaid
- How are emotional support animals doing?
 - There was an ESA hermit crab
 - Careful that people don't abuse it
